against is really against the latter order. The appeal is within time.

The dispersal after appeal was in allegiance as the appellant had also sued the auildar of Nanjangud in respect of certain action taken after letter for the prompt recovery after rent. The lease was cancelled chiefly on the ground that the appellant was not punctual in payment and that he was seeking untenable excuses for holding back portions of the rent due. The circumstances fully support this view of the Dy Comm.

To

The General Secretary to the Government of Mysore Bangalore

The humble petition of G. R. Venkatarao of Mysore respectfully showeth.

Reference, Mysore No 1761 D/16th April 1913
F. 121-11

---

1. That the Mysore institution of Sree Lakshmiteswaraswami Temple owned about 42 acres of land at Heggadahalli Village in the Nanjangud Taluq. This piece of land required large investment of money, to be brought under wet cultivation, so as to yield any income to the temple.
After the land lay waste for a number of years the petitioner applied to the Auildar & the Sub-Divisional officer for a long lease of the said lands, the proposal was subsequently approved by the Deputy Commissioner and the right of lease was sold by public auction to the petitioner, who happened to be the highest bidder, accordingly the petitioner executed duly registered lease deed in favour of the Talug Auildar on the 24th May 1907.

2. That in accordance with the terms of the lease the petitioner was to enjoy the property for 20 years, to pay a progressive rate of jute produce every year & to bring the Leased lands under proper cultivation, the petitioner at the same time furnishing security for the due of the above conditions the petitioner under the security of recouping his expenses invested about 2000 Rupees for the cultivation of lands which he was destined to enjoy as subsequent events showed only for 4 years, for at the end of the 4th year certain private quarrels between the petitioner and the Builder Dr Dharmadas gave occasion for the latter to use his power & authority of official position to the detriment & ultimate ruin of the petitioner, Dr Dharmadas in spite of the strongest considerations embodied in the lease deed forcibly entered on the lands & distrained the produce on the 4th February 1911

long before it was actually due.

by putting the petitioner in possession of the leased lands together with such concessions as the Government may be pleased to grant in consideration of the loss the petitioner has sustained since the deprivation of his possession.

8. The petitioner further prays that inview of the long delay that has already occurred in the matter the Government may be pleased to fix an early date for the disposal of his appeal giving him an opportunity to appear personally & to explain his case.

And for which act of kindness the petitioner shall ever pray.

The petitioner begs to remain - Sir Your most obedient - Servant -

Second Appeal No: 297 of 1914-15

G.R. Venkatarao, Plaintiff, Appellant

by Mr. B.V. Ranganatha Iyengar for Mr. K.R.S.

~~VS~~

Mr. S. Dharmarao, defendant, Respondent

Second appeal against the decree of the District Judge of Mysore in R.A. No. 285/13-14 confirming that of the Munsiff of Nanjangud in O.S. No: 70 of 1911-12

This appeal coming on for admission this day, the court pronounced the following, order

The suit laid was against the defendant in his capacity as a private person, but the findings of fact are adverse to the plaintiff and fail to make out the cause of action alleged. We cannot allow the plaintiff at this stage to convert the suit into one against the defendant in his official capacity.

This

This second appeal is accordingly dismissed without notice to the respondent.
